

EHRLO HOUSING

General information

- Ehrlo Housing operates as part of Ranch Ehrlo Society's community services and its mandate is to provide affordable housing to low-income families, single mothers, and individuals with chronic mental health conditions
- The program currently manages 101 units within the City of Regina
- Ehrlo Housing has developed and maintained numerous strategic partnerships to deliver its programming. Some partners include the Phoenix Residential Society, the City of Regina, the Saskatchewan Housing Corporation (SHC), and the Heritage Community Association

Affordable housing for singles

McEwen Manor

- 40 affordable studio rental units for single adults participating in the Phoenix Residential Society treatment plan
- Arms-length partnership with Phoenix Residential Society who provides support and programming to the tenants

CHAZ Court

- 8 affordable 200-square foot studio suites for young single adults
- Capital funding received through SHC Rental Development Program; City of Regina financial commitment obtained through Social Development Reserve funding

Affordable housing for families

Lakeshore Village

- 44 affordable rental units for families and Creative Corners Daycare on-site
- Purchased, renovated, and providing property management since 1997; renovations partially funded by municipal and provincial grants

Washington Park Place

- 12 affordable units for single mothers
- Purchased, renovated, and providing property management since 2002; renovations partially funded by municipal and provincial grants

For more information visit www.ehrlo.com or contact Shelley Sayer, director of Ehrlo Housing at (306) 751-5666.

