Family Treatment & Intensive Family Preservation programs

Our family programs (Family Treatment Program, Intensive Family Preservation Program, and Treatment Foster Care Program) work to prevent the placement of children out of their home, assist families to reunite after having a child in care, or provide family-based care for children.

Families reunified in Family Treatment Program

Out of home placements prevented in Intensive Family Preservation Program

The Treatment Foster Care program provides an important resource along the continuum of care by providing family-based care for children using professional foster parents.

Our foster parents assume responsibility for youth in their care as well as ensure that the youth are actively involved with their community. They help youth and birth families develop and maintain healthy relationships and plan for reunification whenever possible.
