Ranch Ehrlo Society is a non-profit organization that operates group living, family, clinical, community, and educational programs across the province.

Our annual powwow is more than an event, it is a testament to our commitment to building community bonds and providing a platform for participants to proudly connect with their cultural identity. By joining us, you contribute to a meaningful and enriching experience for our youth, playing a crucial role in preserving and passing on Indigenous culture and traditions to future generations.

Exclusive sponsorship benefits

As a valued sponsor, your support ensures the success of this important event. Your sponsorship will not only support a cultural milestone but also strengthen the bonds that make our community unique. Enjoy prime visibility as we gather to experience the beauty of dancing, singing, and storytelling. Take advantage of the opportunity to showcase your commitment to community and culture.

Inclusivity and community engagement

Our powwow is open to people of all ages and backgrounds. Bring your family and friends along to share in this cultural celebration. This event provides a unique platform for attendees to learn more about our programs, services, and the impactful work we do in the community.

Thank you for considering this opportunity to make a positive impact and be part of a memorable celebration of culture and community.
